*If I had a class in Vergil next term I would use
KNAPP'S VERGIL*

My reasons for the decision are:

- (1) Because its Introduction contains the best material in biography, history, mythology, and grammar of Vergil that is available
 - (2) Because the notes are on the same page with the text, saving the time given to finding the place in the back of the book and thus conserving powers of attention and application
 - (3) Because of its superior illustrations and mechanical excellence
 - (4) Because all long vowels are marked in the text
 - (5) Because I can have a separate text for the recitation room
- Would not these reasons influence you in the choice of a book?

Caesar's Gallic War, $1.25

This book, while simple, includes everything needed by the student in reading the Commentaries. The introduction contains an outline of the life of Caesar, a description in brief of the scenes of his military operations, and a short treatise on the military system of the Romans. The notes are sufficiently helpful, and the illustrations are appropriate, yet
